PYTHIANS IN DISTRICT CONVENTION WEDNESDAY

BARBECUE AND DISTRICT MEETING ON EVE OF THE GRAND LODGE

In that spirit of hospitality that has always characterized members of Milam Lodge No. 125 Knights of Pythias, the lodges of the district were entertained here Wednesday night with a barbecue and district meeting with a program.

The barbecue was held beginning at six o'clock at the castle hall with the committee in charge serving barbecued meats and accessories. Judge W. G. Gillis in the absence of the Chancellor Commander acted as master of ceremonies and in his pleasing and splendid manner made the guests welcome.

Mrs. Wallace Jones, Mrs. W. O. Triggs and Mrs. W. G. Gillis as the committee on welcome for the visiting women made all welcome.

From the barbecue grounds the Knights and the visiting Knights went to the Castle Hall where a program of speech making was held. Judge Gillis was master of ceremonies. The invocation at the supper was given by Rev. Wallace Jones.

In the lodge room speeches from visitors were heard and the address of welcome was delivered by Hon. A. J. Lewis. Short talks were made by Roy Baskin and M. G. Cox, district deputy grand chancellor.

The Knights adjourned to the Methodist church where Judge Gillis delivered the Pythian address. He presented the principles of Pythianism in his usual inspiring manner and the address was enjoyed by all.

The grand lodge meets in Austin next week and W. W. Chambers will go as representative from this lodge. Mr. Cox who is chairman of the committee on state of the order will attend the lodge leaving Cameron Sunday for Austin.

"Ghost Bird" Pleases Large Audience Here On Thursday Night

The play "Ghost Bird" given here on last Thursday night for the benefit of Cameron firemen was a success in every way. The play under the direction of Leo Werner and Jack Hardin was well presented the cast presenting their parts in true style and the vaudeville between acts was a refreshing feature of the program.

This play was the finest exhibition of talent yet seen in a local play and the people here appreciate the efforts put forth and the firemen realized a neat sum from this play.

Cameron Herald 50 Years Old Today

With this issue The Cameron Herald is 50 years old. It is with one exception the oldest business in Cameron, the Milam County Abstract Company being its senior.

The Herald was established in 1878 and has been continuously published without the missing an issue since that time. The management had hoped to present some history surrounding this paper this week but because of lack of time this could not be done.

The management would appreciate letters from readers who have been reading The Herald for many years and trusts that a number will come forward for our next issue.

The current of history has been changed many times since the first issue of The Herald was published and many of the world's great events were undreamed possibilities of time. Long before the age of automobiles and aeroplanes The Herald was a reality battling for progress in Milam County and has lived and grown through a half century of rich and romantic Texas history.

POAGE WILL OPEN CAMPAIGN FOR SENATE

LEADER OF ECONOMY BLOC ANNOUNCES HIS CANDIDACY FOR STATE SENATE

Hon. W. R. Poage, representative in the 39th and 40th legislatures from the 97th District and known throughout the state as the chairman of the Economy Bloc of the last House, has announced that he will be a candidate for a seat in the Senate from the 13th Senatorial District including Falls, Limestone, Milam and McLennan counties.

Mr. Poage, whose early years were spent on a West Texas ranch has lived in Waco for the past 15 years where he is engaged in the practice of law. He has farming interests in two of the four counties of this district. He has represented his county in the House for the past two sessions and is recognized as a Legislative leader.

He was born in McLennan county, was educated in a one teacher country school, Waco High school, Baylor University and the University of Texas. He holds a law degree and license from the state. He has worked on the farm, at day labor for the city at construction work, has taught school, farmed for himself and practiced law.

He is a member of the James Edmond Post of the American Legion and an active worker in behalf of all civic activities of his community.

As a member of the House he was on the important committees on Banks and Banking, Corporations, Privileges, Suffrage and Elections and Conservation. He made a active fight in behalf of the "Hot check" and "False Statement" acts. He was one of the authors of the original "Three Cent Gas tax" and the "Reduction of Motor License Fees" bill. These two measures were introduced in the House together and passed together. The first time they were introduced they died in the Senate. They were again introduced in the next Legislature and passed the House together. In the Senate the tax on gasoline was increased but there was no reduction given in the License Fees. Mr. Poage insisted on the floor of the House that the gas tax should not be increased unless a reduction be allowed in the license fees.

Mr. Poage also supported a bill to give the counties of the state all of the money collected as motor license fees, the larger part of this money now goes to the State Highway Department. Mr. Poage contended that the concentration of vast sums of money in Austin was unwise and that a larger proportion of the highway money could be better spent by the counties, thus making the State Highways accessible to the man "out in the mud." This bill passed the House of which Mr. Poage was a member, but was killed in the Senate where an effort was made to reduce the small amount of money the counties now get.

Mr. Poage is probably best known to the people of the state as leader of the group of representatives who made such a long and stubborn fight in the called session of the last legislature to keep the appropriations bills down. Their fight resulted in the cutting of something like seven million dollars off of the proposed appropriations and at the same time they supported and passed the $15.00 apportionment and rural aid bills for the support of the schools of the state, nor did they cripple any of the activities of the state government as a certain members of the senate stated they would.

No wood is included in this structure. The building will be 75 feet in length and with a 16 foot shed. It will be absolutely fire proof.

Saves Boy's Life When He Rescues Lad 6 From Basin

Moody Hayes is responsible for the saving of the life of Johnnie Shelton, 6 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shelton, Wednesday, when he plunged into the settling basin and dragged the boy out after he was apparently sinking for the third time.

The boy playing about the basin fell in the water which is very deep. He was discovered by another child and the rescue was organized with Mr. Watson of the Texas Water Company assisting Mr. Hayes.

Dr. Sapp was called and the boy was saved. After he was taken from the water those at the scene worked with the lad until the doctor arrived.

We all enjoyed it very much and we will meet May 14, 1928 at the home of Imogene Moore and will discuss the kind of clothing for the ones to make that are entering the clothing contest. We had four visitors present and were: Mrs. L. T. Cryer, Mrs. W. D. Bales, Misses Ruth Lyles and Connie Cryer. The club members present were Rena Griffin, Imogene Moore, Ruthie Cryer, Edna Cryer, Opal Clendennen, Aileen Underwood and Mary West. We all had a very good meeting and we hope to have our next club meeting as interesting. We have two club members of whom we are very proud, and are Rena Griffin and Imogene Moore. Reporter.

to keep the appropriations bills down. Mr. Poage has been confined to his bed for some time with the flu but is up and around now and states that he will begin an active campaign in the very near future. He will announce the time and place of his opening address within the next few days. Mr. Poage says he expects to make the race on his record and not his promises. He says, "I have made very few promises to the people of my district in the past, but all as I have made I have fulfilled. I think those who know me will believe me when I say that I shall continue this practice."

Road Meetings Success At Giddings Thursday

Connecticut Goes Into Smith Ranks

Hartford, Conn., May 3.—Democrats pledged their support to Governor Alfred E. Smith of New York for the presidential nomination today. Smith will get Connecticut's entire 14 votes at Houston until he releases the delegates.

AL SMITH IS VICTOR IN CALIFORNIA RACE

MANAGERS CLAIM NOMINATION IS CERTAIN AT HOUSTON CONVENTION

San Francisco, Cal., May 2.—A smashing victory by Governor Alfred E. Smith of New York in yesterday's democratic presidential preference primary over Senator James A. Reed of Missouri and Senator Walsh of Montana today brought claims of Smith supporters of assured success at Houston carrying explanations of the results and one suggestion of a bolt from the party if Smith is nominated came from camps of the defeated.

Smith got more than his two opponents combined.

Out of the state's total 8,908,716 gave Smith 130,439; Reed 56,651 and Walsh 44,956.

Wilbur Legett, state campaign manager for Reed made the sensational suggestion of placing an independent ticket in the field in the event Governor Smith is nominated at Houston in June. He telephoned Josephus Daniels, secretary of the navy under Wilson, asking the candidate if he would make the race for vice president on a ticket headed by Senator Reed.

ROCKDALE ROAD GETS $175,000 ALLOTMENT

HIGHWAY 43 TO BE HARD SURFACED FROM MILANO TO DRY BRUSHY

The best road news The Reporter has had in a long time is that yesterday the State Highway Commission allotted the sum of $175,000 to the project of hard surfacing the fifteen miles of Highway 43, beginning at Milano and extending thru Rockdale to the Rockdale precinct line at Dry Brushy.

Bids will be called for by the State Engineer at once and the actual construction work will probably be done this summer. The type of road to be built will consist of either rock or gravel base, topped with asphalt—the same type of road as recently completed between Round Rock and Hutto.

This news was brought to Rockdale yesterday by H. C. Meyer and E. A. Camp, who appeared before the Highway Commission in support of the allotment.

At the same time these gentlemen bring the news that the trouble which has been holding up the work on the Thorndale leg of Highway 43 has been settled and that the former allotment of $225,000 made for that project will be released just as soon as Thorndale complies with the provisions of the allotment relative to securing the land for widening the highway all along the route. The principle trouble over there has been the matter of right-of-way through the town. The Missouri Pacific officials notified the Highway Commission through Messrs. Camp and Meyer yesterday that the company would grant an easement on their right to the present highway right-of-way and would also grant ten feet more land for the purpose.

The matter of securing the balance of the right-of-way east of Thorndale can be easily worked out by the Thorndale good roads committee and it is confidently expected that the work of improving the Thorndale leg of the highway will soon be under way.

Miss Earl Bragg spent the week end in Lexington visiting friends, returning home early Sunday morning.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Z. Young of Buckholts were Cameron visitors Wednesday.

TICK ERADICATION IS NECESSARY FOR PLANT

COMPANIES SAY MILK PRODUCTS DEPEND ON HEALTHY COWS

Eradication of cattle fever ticks in Milam county is necessary if better cattle are had for milk production to support a cheese and milk products factory, it was disclosed at the meeting of the club on Monday night.

Roll call showed the following named present: F. J. Beckerman, Frank Lesovsky, J. C. Tucker, Wm. Cobb, J. D. Dobbins, J. E. Mangum, George T. Graves, George Banzhaf, C. W. Lawrence, Giles Avriett, S. E. Brogdon, W. A. Beal, W. H. Shipp, Doctor Sutton, R. Beard and Will Ford.

S. E. Brogdon reported having been to Belton to investigate the lighting of the dome of the court house. He found the cost of flood light in use there to have been $305 and the cost to light it from dusk to 11 p. m., minimum $11.88 a month.

This project was referred to a committee consisting of Mr. Brogdon, chairman he to name two other members.

Mr. Banzhaf called attention to the proposed trip of Milam County people to A. & M. College on May 4th. He asked that everybody talk up this trip and ask everybody to go to College Station for that day. He said a special dairy program would be provided in view of the interest being shown in dairying in Milam County. The cars will leave Cameron at 7:30 on next Friday and returning that night.

R. Beard was called upon and told of the need of ridding Milam county of the cattle tick before much dairy progress could be made. He told how sentiment in the county had changed, that those who opposed dipping and even some who had helped blow up the vats are now converts to the cause and dipping their cattle at their own expense. He favored cleaning up all territory north of the I. & G. N. railroad under the new law the state pays all expenses except getting the dipping vats ready to go.

On motion a committee with Geo. T. Graves as chairman, Giles Avriett and R. Beard were appointed to co-operate with the Commissioner's court.

Mr. Burns was not present to make a report on the cheese factory proposition but so much interest had been shown that the club appointed a committee consisting of J. C. Tucker, W. H. Shipp and George Banzhaf to co-operate with Mr. Burns's committee in raising the necessary money for equipping a cheese factory in Cameron.

Texan Was Helped by Use of Black-Draught.

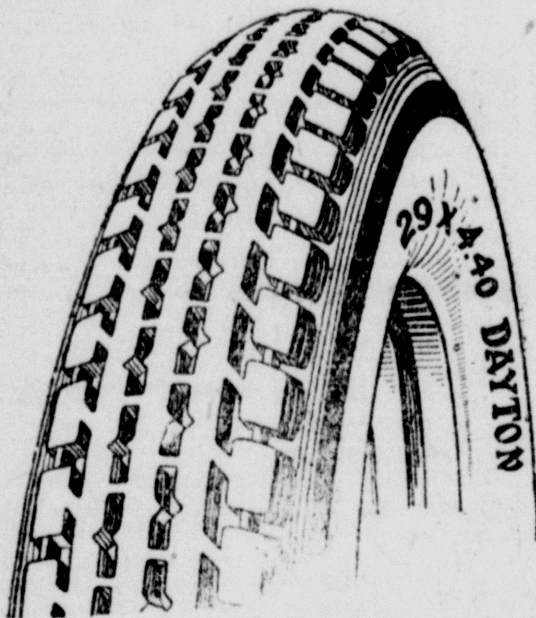

Mr. James W. Burnett, who lives on Rural Route No. 4, Whitney, Texas is a great believer in Thedford's Black-Draught for the relief of such common ills as indigestion and constipation. He writes: "Since I first found out about Black-Draught, I have never been without it in the house. For several years, I had been a sufferer with indigestion. Occasionally, my system would become thoroughly choked with poison, and I would have a real sick spell. Now I ward them off by being forehanded, and taking Black-Draught before they come, instead of after. "We all use Black-Draught in our home, for constipation and indigestion."

"We sincerely appreciate the splendid patronage given the play "Ghost Bird" on last Thursday night and we take this method of showing our appreciation.

"We wish especially to thank the members of the Business and Professional Club for their aid to us in selling tickets to the play; the members of the splendid cast who gave this play for the people of Cameron; the school board for its generous privilege of using the auditorium of the school, and to all who assisted in any way to make this play a success.

"We appreciate the patronage of the business men of Cameron on the program printed. The program and the play enabled the firemen to raise a neat sum for their needs. The firemen appreciate the quality of our citizenship and it will be our purpose always to serve the people to the best of our ability.

Hard Day For Old Roosters; 1800 In Market Sales Here

The "Swat the Rooster Day" announced recently by the Peter Company has brought to the local market 1800 roosters and in consequence has produced many thousands of infertile eggs for the market resulting in increased revenue to the farmers and poultry men.

Mr. Shipp says the advertising was very effective and the roosters were brought in rapidly. There still remain quite a number of roosters and Mr. Shipp will still buy them.

The work of the Peter Company is shaping well to encourage the organization of an association to market infertile eggs. This would bring greater revenue and it is hoped that the poultry people will soon organize a county association. If they do this they will be able to get a better price for their products.

FOG AIRPLANES WATERLOO

Developments and events in aeronautics have occasioned in this country in recent months more than ordinary interest in the future of air transportation. The subject is on the tongues of the multitudes and is being linked with some of the nation's largest industrial organizations. It is obvious that the public has been convinced that passenger and freight air lines will come before another decade expires.

Europ now has her regular air lines while in this country California and Florida have passenger air lines, the Ford interests are operating a fleet of freight planes and the U. S. government has established an extensive air-mail system. But formidable obstacles still stand service by air in the United States in the way of regular passenger States.

It is not that the passenger-carrying plane is not as highly developed in the United States as it is in Europe nor is it that capital and initiative is lacking here. But for atmospheric and geographical handicaps passenger air service would be already established here.

Unlike those sections of Europe over which one may travel by plane, many sections of the United States are made unsafe for air travel by their ruggedness, isolation and unfavorable atmospheric conditions. To the aviator these are serious matters.

Fogs cancel flying dates for European passenger planes and until man invents a fog-penetrating searchlight the future passenger planes of this country will not guarantee their schedules. Railroad transportation is made highly hazardous by fog, and air travel impossible.

HE MADE IT WORK

The thirteenth day of May will be the thirty-first birthday anniversary of radio. On that date in 1897 a rich young Italian, Guglielmo Marconi—then contemptuously called the "wireless crank,"—sent an intelligible message across the Bristol Channel in England, demonstrating that the mysterious electric impulse, which he and his preceptor, Professor Rhigi, had partly trained, was no mere scientific toy, but neither bridge nor wire. It was not many months later that ship-to-shore communication was a practical success. Radio, most phenomenal of all modern marvels, was in full career.

That historic event thirty-one years ago was not, of course, the very first germ of radio. Back in the first decades of the nineteenth century, more than a hundred years ago, the famous French physicist, Dr. Jean Baptiste Biot, had made what can now be recognized as the first recorded radio equipment. His broadcasting station was, no electric giant. It was merely a small electric machine like those which once decorated offices of physicians. His receiver was no intricate assemblage of tubes and coils. It was, instead, nothing more mysterious than a pair of frog's legs. He discovered that the leg of a frog jumps automatically when energized by an electric current and that when his machine produced electric sparks the legs, suspended at the opposite side of the room, jumped. His writings do not disclose whether he saw in his discovery of future means of communication.

After Biot came Heinrich Hertz and Popoff and Sir Oliver Lodge and Rhigi and a score of others. All before Marconi. But it was the youngfellow who it was the young Italian who made the thing work.

SUCCESS

Achievement is not always success, while reputed failure often is. The most successful men are not necessarily the ones noisily attracting public attention. The best and most useful women are not the bright butterflies of fashion on the stage, whose press agents incessantly flaunt their pictures and their petty doings before the public.

The unlauded men and women who are quietly attending to their own little duties, every day contributing something substantial to general industry, prosperity and progress, rearing children in habits of useful work and right living and supplying examples that elevate the moral and intellectual level of their little communities—these are the men and women of real influence and power.

Success is theirs in the fullest measure.

How shrunken and pitiful a thing, how hollow a delusion, is the shining so-called success of self-absorbed men and women.

They have only the husks of life's golden grain.

Like that soldier under Galerius who found a shining leather bag filled with pearls and cast away the pearls but carefully preserved the bag, these self-absorbed ones are spurning true riches, real success, to hug to their hearts things that are empty and worthless.

A man is also judged by the scandals he keeps up with.

To secure conservation appears to require a lot of conversation.

Modern styles are such that a hairdresser is the person a woman works hardest.

Possession is nine parts of the and 99 per cent of what interests the lawyer.

It isn't generosity that makes a free spender that way; he spends most of it on himself.

The person who works is a better risk for insurance companies than the idle man, says a writer. But insurance companies should worry. The idle man soon lets his policy lapse, if any.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Copus have recently moved into their new home near the city park. This is an attractive home and their friends congratulate them.

Builders Class

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Walters were host and hostess to the members of the Builders Class and a few friends at their home Tuesday evening at eight o'clock.

Raymond Beard, the president of the class presided during a short business session. Ray Burke conducted the devotional and also led the prayer. After the business and devotional the evening was turned over to Mrs. Walters who introduced the guests to her house guests, Mr. Horse Fly, Mrs. Horse Fly and Mr. Let'er Fly which proved to be a shower of cold water. Partners were found by matching capitals and states and were invited to the porch and were served lemonade and ginger snaps. Many catchy games were enjoyed throughout the evening. The hostess served brick cream and walnut cake. Guests other than class members were Rev. Wallace's grandmother, Mrs. Lane, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stafford, Mr. and Mrs. Starling of Buckholts and their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Pewthers.

Andres-Richter

Miss Hilda Richter and J. C. Andres were united in marriage by Father Apel at St. Monica's church Wednesday morning at eight o'clock. Bridal music was most effectively rendered by the choir. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple were honored guests at a wedding breakfast given by the bride's sister, Mrs. J. Mikula at the Mikula home. Other guests at this reception were the members of the immediate families of the honorees. The bride and groom left for an automobile trip to Waco, Dallas and other points, after which they will make their home in Cameron.

For the wedding the bride wore a model of orchid taffeta and georgette with orchid hat and accessories to harmonize. Her bouquet was of pink carnations. The groom wore a conventional blue serge business suit. Attendants of the bride and groom were Frank Richter and J. Mikula, brother and brother in law respectively of Mrs. Andres.

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Darkens Beautifully and Restores Its Natural Color and Lustre At Once

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients a large bottle, at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of muss.

While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.

REV. J. L. TAYLOR IS BURIED IN TEMPLE

FATHER OF DR. G. B. TAYLOR
PIONEER MINISTER, DEAD
AT EIGHTY-EIGHT YEARS

Rev. J. L. Taylor, father of Dr. G. B. Taylor and pioneer Texas Baptist minister is dead at 88 years of age. The following account is taken from the Temple Telegram.

Reverend Taylor was born in Berry county, Missouri, October 15, 1839, and was married to Miss Mary Jane Colbaugh, February 6, 1854, in Fayetteville, Ark. To this union nine children were born, of whom five survive: J. D. Taylor of Pendleton, Dr. G. B. Taylor of Cameron, Mrs. O. S. Houscutt of Temple, Mrs. J. T. Tierney of Beaumont, Mrs. E. R. Shannon of St. Louis. All were here at the bedside when the end came.

Reverend Taylor was one of the pioneers, a respected citizen of Bell county who was known and loved by thousands for his long years of faithful work, his wonderful Christian character, his kindness and helpfulness. He moved to Bell county more than 50 years ago, coming here just when Temple was being settled. He was a member of the First Baptist church here and had been a member of the Baptist church for 70 years, an active minister for more than 40 years. He was also a member of the Odd Fellows. In the war between the states he was a union soldier and served the duration of the war. His wife preceded him to the grave February 6, 1916.

Out of town relatives here for the funeral include: Mr. and Mrs. M. Seekatz of Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Rogers of Marlin, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Heilman of Waco, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Taylor of Pendleton, Miss Marie Houscutt of Seguin, Mrs. R. A. Carter of Amarillo, Dr. G. B. Taylor of Cameron (Mrs. Taylor not being able to attend on account of illness), Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Taylor Jr., of Waco, Mrs. J. T. Tierney and son, J. T. Jr., of Beaumont, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dunning of Eddy, J. S. Taylor Jr., of Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Elliott of Belton, Mrs. George Lovick and son, George Jr., of Shreveport, La., Taylor Johnson of San Marcos Mrs. A. H. Knepple of Beaumont, Mrs. S. R. Shannon of St. Louis, Captain Gordon Taylor of San Marcos, Mr. and Mrs. Murriell Gregory of Austin.

Rev. John Larkin Taylor, pioneer Bell county Baptist minister, who died at the age of 88 at the home of his daughter here Monday after a brief illness, was laid to rest in Hillcrest cemetery yesterday afternoon, a large crowd attending these last services as a tribute to this courageous, tireless minister, a resident of the county for 50 years and a minister for 40 years.

"Parson Taylor" numbered his friends by the thousands and the simple funeral services at Freeman Heights Baptist church attested to the impress his life had left on the community. An overflowing crowd, many beautiful floral tributes of sheaths and wreaths of flowers filled the little church where he attended services in his last days. He was a member of the First Baptist church but attended the west side church as it was in his neighborhood. For 70 years he had been an active Baptist church member.

More than 40 close relatives, many here from a distance, filled a reserved section at the front of the church. Rev. Charles F. Parker read two favorite New Testament scriptures of Rev. Taylor and dwelt upon them in a brief sermon. Then Rev. R. W. Leazer gave a sketch of the man's life and commented upon his usefulness.

"He was a man whom everybody loved and admired for his fine life and his splendid service. He was a pioneer minister of the Baptist church in this county, endured the hardships, of a pioneer preacher, rode in a buggy, rode horseback and even walked to serve his charges. From his early work many Baptist churches have grown and Sunday schools have developed."

The music of the church choir included old hymns dear to the venerable man of God—"Amazing Grace," "Nearer My God to Thee," and "In the Sweet Bye and Bye." In closing the service Evangelist William S. Dixon gave a prayer.

Services at the cemetery were in charge of the Odd Fellows, who attended in a body, and their ritual was used at the grave with the noble grand and chaplain in charge. Rev. Leazer pronounced the benediction over the grave.

Prisoners Commend Blaylock In Letter To People of County

Dear Friends,
We, the prisoners in the Milam County jail want the people of Milam county to know that they have the best sheriff the county has ever had. Sheriff Blaylock and his wife are like a father and mother to us. They feed us good, give us plenty of paper and books to read and best of all he treats us so good. Everyone of us are sentenced from two to ninety-nine years and if he should open the jail where we could walk out, not a single man would leave for he has trusted us and we all sure will be as good as he is. When our people visit us, he and his family are nice to them.

He also has the best deputy we ever saw. Now good people you don't know what day some of your people will get in bad and you know you want them treated right, so the only way to be sure of good treatment is to vote for him.

They are supposed to read all of our mail but we are slipping this letter out for he would not want it printed but we owe this to him.

From the prisoners in jail.

MISS AGNES HENDERSON BECOMES BRIDE OF MR. ERNEST DOUGLAS BEARD HERE IN BEAUTIFUL HOME WEDDING APRIL 26

The marriage of Miss Agnes Red Henderson to Mr. Ernest Douglas Beard of Calvert, a beautiful and impressive home wedding was solemnized at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Henderson, Sr., Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock April 26, 1928.

The wedding because of the popularity and prominence of the contracting parties was a widely celebrated event uniting two old and distinguished families of Texas.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Henderson, Sr., of Cameron and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Beard of Calvert, both having been reared in this section and have a host of friends over the state who will read with interest the happy culmination of their courtship.

Miss Agnes is known and loved by many friends in Cameron, having been born and reared here. After her graduation from high school she attended State University at Austin where she received her degree. She also spent two years in Baylor University and after completing her university studies gave several years to instruction. Her achievement in voice both at State and Baylor has been widely praised. She is a soloist of note and her voice has been a delight and inspiration to her friends and to the public when she has appeared on programs.

She was popular in State and was a member of the Delta, Delta Sorority and was active in club circles. She has had the advantage of travel and much culture. With her sister, Mrs. Hamilton Bonnett of Evanston, Ill., formerly Miss Harriet Henderson, she spent the summer of 1925 in Europe visiting many of the interesting countries of the continent.

Mr. Beard is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Beard of Calvert. He attended school at Marion Institute in Alabama and for the past several years has been active in business at Calvert and at the present time is manager for the Dodge Bros. Company there. They will make their home in Calvert.

The wedding occurred at 3:30 o'clock p. m., Thursday April 26, 1928 in the fine old mansion of the Henderson family, the quiet dignity of the home lending a distinguished setting for the happy occasion. Rev. E. S. Hutcherson, pastor of the First Baptist church officiated with the ring ceremony.

A full length mirror with a complete garland of pink roses with a gorgeous setting of greenery formed about with tall floor baskets filled with Paul Neron roses completed the altar. On the massive mantle was a bank of pink roses. The bride and groom faced the mirror and scene of floral beauty.

Preceding the entrance of the wedding party Mrs. C. W. Bradbury played a violin solo, "A Melody" from Chuman, accompanied by Mrs. Vernon Stegall of Franklin. Miss Eloise Rogers in her charming voice sang "I Promise You." Mrs. Stegall then played the bridal chorus from Lohengrin as processional.

Mrs. Bradbury wore orchid georgette. Miss Rogers wore yellow crepe with a large flop hat and Mrs. Stegall wore yellow lace and crepe. Each carried corsages of yellow roses.

The groom and best man, Mr. James Guynes of Calvert entered following the minister and took their places before the altar.

Miss Mary Lake Henderson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore orchid chiffon with large picture hat in darker shade of orchid and carried an arm bouquet of yellow Ophelia roses.

The bride entered with her brother, T. S. Henderson, Jr., who gave her in marriage. The bride was a picture of girlish charm in a shell pink chiffon. She wore a close fitting hat of silk braid the same shade of the dress and slippers to match. She carried a bouquet of pink rose buds with a deep shower of valley lilies.

After the wedding ceremony an informal reception was held at the home. The bride's cake was embossed with roses and 'true lovers knot' in the shape of two hearts. The cake was cut by guests and it was served with brick cream. After the serving of guests all passed to the dining room where the many gifts, elaborate and beautiful were seen.

The young couple stole away from the scene of their marriage for a short wedding trip. The bride's going away dress was midnight blue georgette ensemble with accessories to match.

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

Druggist Says Ladies Are Using Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

Horned Frog Visits Eastland's Famous

Washington, May 3.—Wrapped not too handsomely in a bundle of newspapers, but accompanied by Senator Mayfield and other prominent Texans the famous horned frog that supposedly for 31 years was walled in the corner stone of the courthouse at Eastland, Thursday was formally displayed to President Coolidge.

Will M. Wood, its owner, explained the circumstances of its burial and rediscovery. Mr. Coolidge, though amused, limited himself to looking at the creature and touching it with his spectacles. Mr. Wood is taking the animal to New York.

Scientists are in dispute over the age of the frog.

CRACKLINGS

You know I'm told it's getting awfully hard for a man now days to find a wife who will help him wash dishes.

Not having anything special to do some time ago, I decided to collect information on special weeks. Not that knowing helped much, but just curious. Here's what I found and I'm told I didn't get one-third started. There's National Thrift Week, Boy Scout Week, Drama Week, Movie Week, Vaudeville Week, Better Homes Week, Baby Week, National Hearing Week, Girl Scout Week, Better English Week, Stop, Look and Listen Week, Shrub Week, Tree Week, Fire Prevention Week, Management Week, Pop and Son Week, Education Week, Better Farm Implement Week, Music Week, Window Display Week, Try the Drug Store First Week, Apple Week, Lemon Week, Prune Week, Grape Fruit Week, Canned Food Week, Fish Week, Children's Book Week, Church Advertising Week, Grandma Week, Walk and Be Healthy Week, Old Home Week, Bread and Milk Week, Own Your Own Home Week, Say It With Flower Week, Buy Bakery Bread Week, Life Insurance Week, Save the Surface and You Save All Week, Better Baby Week, National Suspender Week, Radio Week, Umbrella Week, Safety First Week. Oh Gosh, there are 182 more but I'm tired and I know you are too. Oh yes, there's one more sensible one, Mind Your Own Darn Business Week.

You know these kids now days are too much for us old folks. That kid of mine the other day says, "Pa, will you buy me them boots we saw in the window if I prove to you a dog has ten tails?" Yes, go on." "Well, one dog has one more tail than no dog hasn't he?" "Yes," I had to admit. "Well, no dog has nine tails, you'll admit, and if one dog has one more tail than no dog, then one dog must have ten tails." He got the boots.—Ohmii.

I'm one of those fools possibly? who believes that a pat on the shoulder brings out better work and makes more friends than a kick on the shins.

When O. Henry wrote, "Life is made up of sobs, snuffles and smiles, with snuffles predominating," I bet the kids all had colds and were bawling, the old lady was cross and O. Henry was trying to read the evening paper.

I wonder if O. H. Benson, who wrote the following, was a farmer, or just wise naturally: "There is quite as much education and true learning in the analysis of an ear of corn as in the analysis of a complex sentence; ability to analyze clover and alfalfa roots savors of quite as much culture as does the study of Latin and Greek roots."

If you want to get a real new thrill if you desire to get an inspiration that will make you truly think and wonder, try this for one week. Just before you are ready to jump into bed, get in a room all by yourself where it is quiet and step before the mirror and truly look yourself in the eye and concentrate on this thought: "Just what kind of a man or woman am I, have I done anything today not just right, or have I done something today that was right and makes it easier for me to look into my own eyes and feel better?" It's a great thought provoker, this stunt, try it.

Russell Sage says, "The best way for a young man who is without friends or influence to begin is: First to get a position; second to keep his mouth shut; third, observe; fourth, be faithful; fifth, make his employer think he would be lost in a fog without him; sixth, be polite.

Wouldn't this be a great world if we all lived lives so full of cheerfulness, goodness and uprightness that even the undertaker would be sorry when we passed on.

Show me a man who truly loves to be alone in the woods, who can on his back gaze by the hour at the stars who loves to call your attention to a beautiful sunset, and I'll show you a man.

As Thoreau said, "I love to be alone. I never found the companion that was so companionable as solitude."

As Carlyle wrote, "Looking around on the noisy insanity of the world's words with little meaning, actions with little worth, one loves to reflect on the great Empire of Silence, higher than all stars, deeper than the Kingdom of Death. It alone is great, all else is small."

I always feel just a little more self reliant after I hear a great mind express a thought which I have also thought.

Silent Partner says: "The man who talks loud and long about being a howling success, eventually winds up by howling about his hard luck."

New Chevrolet Is Announced; Sport Cabriolet Is Here

Pioneering into the low priced automobile field another distinctive style feature, the Chevrolet Motor Company, today, announces a new Convertible Sport Cabriolet with Body by Fisher, listing at $695 f. o. b. Flint, Michigan.

Combining all the closed car advantages of the sport cabriolet with the open car features of the roadster, this latest offering of the world's largest automobile producing company is ideally suited to every type of weather under all kinds of driving conditions.

Of two to four passenger capacity, the convertible cab with the top up resembles the sport cabriolet in appearance. The top, however, is fully collapsible and folds so completely out of the way that full vision ahead is possible from the rumble seat. An additional feature is the inclusion of a nickel banding around the windows which gives them rigidity and permits of raising the windows, with the top lowered, as an extra protection against the wind.

Finished in Roman Red, with black body beading striped in gold, and embellished with artistic touches of polished nickel, the new model sounds a distinctive style note in the field of low cost transportation. The disc wheels are of the same brilliant color combination as the body.

The soft folding rubber fabric top is jet black in pleasing contrast to the dominant tones of the body. The body by Fisher retains the sweeping graceful lines that distinguished the former cabriolet; while other features are of the same dependable construction that is winning unprecedented numbers to the Bigger and Better Chevrolet.

Mrs. Harvey Dobbins was chairman of the social committee and sandwiches and tea were served to about 19 members.

"Kitty's Arrival" At Yoe Hi Auditorium Thursday Night

The long-looked for, much-talked of, hard-worked on play is now a reality. It gives us the greatest pleasure to announce the staging of this production. We feel that it will be something that will help make life more joyous for several days afterwards by its many good laughs.

The name—oh, yes,—is "The Arrival of Kitty." And Kitty is a dashing attractive young actress from New York who is pretty, petite and blonde. Then Sam, the colored negro porter furnishes plenty of amusement and ludicrous Aunt Jane, indefatigable Bobby Baxter, rare William Winkler, unusual Tinglepaugh, eccentric Benjamin Moore, Coquettish Suzette and attractive Jane furnish an all-star cast. The setting is an attractive summer hotel in the Catskill Mountains.

Everything is being done to make this a success. An entirely new set of scenery has been constructed. All that is now lacking is a good audience. May we have your cooperation in this?

The play will be at 8:15, Thursday night in the Yoe High auditorium with admission of twenty-five and fifty cents. The money will be used for purchasing a moving picture machine for the high school so that the coming classes will not forget the Seniors of 1928.

John Stasa Takes 15 Papers; Farmer Keeps Well Posted

Do farmers read? C. V. Robinson, field director for the Farm Bureau in this section says that they do and cites one man in particular, John Stasa of Buckholts, route three, who reads 15 papers regularly.

Mr. Stasa, a prosperous farmer with a good farm well improved, terraced land and 1,000 baby chicks coming on, is active in community work of all kinds, is one of the leaders in a move for a Farm Bureau gin in his community, and a well informed man. He speaks three languages, German, Czech-Slovakian and English, though he has few schooling opportunities.

He reads the Temple Telegram, the Cameron Herald and Cameron Enterprise, the Farm Bureau News, several lodge papers, several farm journals and six Bohemian language papers.

Branchville News

As this was fifth Sunday we did not have any church but the B. Y. P. U. program was unusually good. Some of the things especially to be mentioned was the part the primary room had. A special song by Elizabeth Hollingsworth, a reading by Mary Ruth Porter were all good. Miss Raley, the primary teacher told the life of a missionary then she had a poster with an ocean painted on it and each little boy and girl stuck a miniature ship on the poster representing a ship carrying a message to the missionaries.

Edith Smith told a very interesting Bible story which everyone enjoyed. We had a very good report but didn't as many fill out their reports as should. We had several on both groups to make 100 per cent and hope everyone will try next time to come up to that standard.

The school and a little outside talent are getting up a play the "Matrimonial Exchange." They had a rehearsal Friday night but no definite time has been set for it.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Smith were in Cameron Friday night and played bridge with Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Roberts.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith went to Calvert Friday night to a bridge party.

The young people had a moonlight picnic Saturday night. There was a large crowd present to enjoy the cats.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Tyson and children from Calvert were over Saturday night to visit Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Porter.

We just have another month of school and the children are at work in earnest to do their best these four weeks.

There was a crowd of children at the home of Mrs. A. Harlan Saturday afternoon to be with little Rose Mary Yates to celebrate her seventh birthday. They enjoyed games for a while then were invited to the dining room. In the center of the table was a pretty white angel food cake with seven pink candles burning. The children blew the candles out and made many nice wishes for her. The cake was then cut and cream cones were then served to all. She received many pretty and useful gifts that made her very happy.

Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Harlan spent Sunday with Mrs. Harlan's sister at Jones Prairie, Mrs. H. McKinney.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Werner spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Porter.

Mrs. W. O. Triggs and Mrs. Ida Avriett spent Tuesday in Maysfield the guests of Mrs. Hubert Atkinson.

Little Miss Lucille McDermott is visiting in Waco this week, the guest of Eloise Rogers and her dancing teacher, Miss Roberta Warren.

School nurse says all girls should know this

TALKING to a roomful of high school girls on personal hygiene, an experienced district nurse said: "One of the basic rules of health for girls is to keep the system functioning naturally at all times. Normal exercise and diet habits should be encouraged. But when necessary there's no harm in taking nujol, since it works mechanically and can't disturb the normal functions of any organ of the body. Particularly with girls, there are times when nujol should always be taken. Take a spoonful every night for a few days. It's a thoroughly safe and harmless method. It won't cause distress or gas pains or griping." Nujol is different from any other substance. It contains no drugs or medicine. It can be taken safely no matter how you are feeling because it is so pure and harmless, and works so easily. Every woman should keep a bottle on hand. Every druggist has this remarkable substance. DEAR FRIENDS AND CUSTOMERS:

We have never deceived the people. Our sales have always been genuine. When I say this is the most sensational mark down of goods I have ever attempted in Cameron you may depend on it that we are selling cheaper than you have ever bought goods before. There is a reason for this sale and that reason is simply this: We must have the cash and we know of no better way to serve our friends and customers than to give them the benefit of these tremendous reductions. Summer is just ahead. Think of the opportunity here during this Cash Raising Sale to buy things you need for summer. All the merchandise is new and strictly in season. Sale Opens Saturday Morning May 5; Closes On Saturday May 26th

We ask you to be patient while we are arranging the final details of preparing this stock for Saturday morning. We will positively open the doors at 9:00 o'clock. Do not break in the windows by crowding. We realize that some lines of merchandise advertised in this sale will go quickly and those who come late will be disappointed, but we cannot avoid this. There is a reason why you should try to get to this store as early on Saturday morning May 5 as possible. This store is filled with goods but some of the prices on these goods will make them so attractive that they will be snapped up eagerly. Space is always limited. We could print a circular ten times this big and not be able to adequately list all items and tell you why they are worth many times as much as we are selling them for in this Money Raising Sale, but we want you to come to this store and look them over. The prices mentioned here constitute only a small per cent of the many hundreds of bargains awaiting you.

Teachers Entertained

Mrs. Frank Lesovsky entertained the teachers of the Cameron schools and a few friends at her home last Friday evening at eight o'clock with a "school days party."

The home was beautifully decorated in red lilies. Mr. Jake Ralston was the teacher and proved very efficient in this capacity. The pupils gave a very interesting program as the opening exercises. Little Tommy Fisher gave an essay on "Girls. Bessie Hefley in her sweet voice sang, "The Gingerbread Man." Miss Velda Walker gave a recitation, "Pants." Miss Mary Alice Porter gave as a piano number.

The teacher then passed little slates and pencils and a very interesting contest on physiology, literature and botany was enjoyed. Bessie Hefley won the prize and Tommy Fisher got a dunce cap for being a dummy. Desk mates for study period were chosen by matching counties and county seats of Texas. After recess the children again matched partners by matching arthurs and their quotations and were served lunch. The plate contained chicken salad, crackers, cheese balls, and orange ice. Plate favors were sweet pea corsages.

Announcement Party

Mrs. J. Michalka entertained with a party last Wednesday afternoon from three to six o'clock naming as honoree her sister, Miss Hilda Richter, whose marriage to Mr. J. C. Andrews was announced.

The reception rooms were decorated in lovely spring roses in shades of pink and red. Miniature books of pink and white were passed for a name contest of which Miss Mary Richter was the winner and received a gift shop novelty. On the first page of the book the following surprise was found, "A message of love which Dan Cupid wishes to announce to you, Hilda Richter to J. C. Andrews on Wednesday May 2, 1928."

After congratulations and good wishes the honoree was presented with a large basket containing miscellaneous gifts from the guests present. The basket was carried on a decorated wagon drawn by Little Dorothy Richter. In the dining room the hostess served cream and cake from the tea table the center of which was a mound of lilies.

WHAT WE THINK

By FRANK DIXON

This is the time of the year when the farmer rises early and paws the sand high.

The city man starts a garden, but that is all. June finds it full of weeds and the grocer supplies his table.

When I was a boy, at this season of the year we drank sassafras tea. We had dined all winter on pork and hominy too much. Nowadays we have fresh tomatoes from Mexico, pineapples from Hawaii, bananas from Central America, greens and cabbage from Texas, and yet we kick just as much or more and howl about it worse than ever.

The only trouble we have at this season of the year is finding time to eat.

Let the government contribute $325,000,000 to help a few states produce food and let the Mississippi run where it pleases. Just as much sense to one as to the other. But army engineers must be respected, whether they possess common sense or not. What do we pay 'em for?

We have often wondered why a blasted rooster crows at 2 a. m., and about a thousand times more before daylight.

That is one of the mysteries and there are a lot more.

The Lord only knows, but we are on our way.

Our time is up, we must turn on the radio. Old Henry will soon be spouting. He beats old faithful of the Yellowstone.

Tang Whaddle Jones does not have his oats sowed yet. He says it has been too dry. No use to sow oats until it rains. Then it will be too wet. There are more tang whaddles than you think.

The column this week was easy on our head. It will be easy on yours too.

People kicked about the pear crop the past two or three seasons, but they will do no kicking this year. All the fruit crops are injured more or less by the cold waves this past winter. The first cold wave in December injured fruit buds and canes to such a great extent that raspberries, blackberries, peaches, grapes and apples will not produce normal crops. The late freezes just helped out. Only the strawberry has escaped injury so far. After all in 45 years' experience, the strawberry has never been a total failure. Twice it came very near it.

Pardon us for departing from the unimportant. All of the above is important and therefore does not interest the passing crowd.

We continue to forecast the nomination and election of Al Smith to the presidency.

"No Oil on Al" will be a great slogan.

"Cleveland and Mariar" swept Cleveland into the presidency. It does not take much of a slogan to win an election. Just so the people understand it.

So far no oil has been traced to Curtis.

We are gambling that some of these "Big Bugs" are afraid to even think of oil in the dark.

If we do not behave better foreign countries will be sending missionaries to Chicago.

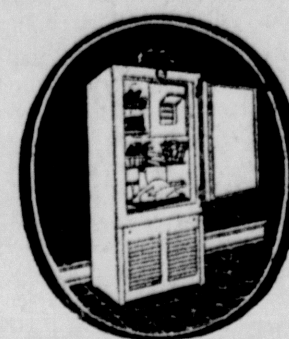

Sinclair is not in jail yet. If they get him then look for a rise in oil.

The latest in training is to train a dog not to bark. Now if that could be worked on people what a world this would be.

It's funny isn't it how much alike most of us are. For instance did you ever note how broadminded we are when dealing with problems that don't affect us personally and how narrow minded we become when we face our own trouble.

Mrs. Gene Smith visited relatives in Rogers last week. Her father Mr. Peeyhouse is much improved in health now.

Mr. and Mrs. Cluk moved to Cameron and are occupying an apartment in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dockery.

TERRIBLE PAIN

Mrs. Cox Quite Well Now And Pleased With Cardui.

Mrs. W. L. Cox, 120 Church Street, Chester, S. C., says:

"I suffered awfully.... I would have a terrible pain, at times; I could hardly stand it. I slept badly; my rest was disturbed and I seemed to get little benefit from it.

"I read about Cardui in the papers and thought it might be a good thing to try, so I began taking it. I was so pleased with the way I improved that I kept on taking it until I felt quite well. Cardui helped me so much and so many people have remarked about my improvement."

Cardui has been used and recommended by thousands of other women, for over 45 years. Try it.

Texas and Texans

By Will H. Mayes

Texans Should Know Texas

In an address to the South Texas Press Association at San Antonio, Governor Dan Moody struck the keynote to the present greatest need of Texas when he said that in his opinion the most urgent duty confronting Texas newspapers today is to picture Texas that the people of the state may come to know the real Texas in a way to love it as they should. Patriotism is born of love, and love comes from knowing that which is loved.

Texans are not lacking in patriotic appreciation of the government of their state, but there is a need for a zealous passion for the State of a kind that will get the strongest support of every citizen in every effort for advancing the interests of Texas as a whole. We need to be aroused from a sort of lethargy into constructive activity of the kind that built up Florida and that is energizing California.

We can't reasonably hope to interest people from other states in what we have here in Texas until Texans themselves become more interested than they are now. Every Texan should be so keenly appreciative of Texas as a whole, so thoroughly informed as to what we expect to have in this state that he will seek every opportunity to give his store of information to others.

This is a wonderful Texas in which we live, a glorious Texas, but most of us do not have our eyes opened or our ears attuned to it. Our horizon is not proportioned to the vastness of the things about us. It is up to the press as Governor Moody so well pointed out, to awaken our own people to what we have and what we hope, and then the people will be glad to carry the message of Texas progress to the outside world.

Provincial Tendencies

The size of Texas is so staggering that most of us find we can not know it by traveling over the State. To attempt learning Texas in that way would not leave us time for our own affairs, much as we would like to see the State. Therefore, we must study it through the press, and we must learn of its progress through a newspaper study of what is going on throughout the State, if we would know it at all. Unless we do this we are likely to become almost provincial, as sectional in our views and our prejudices as the mountaineer, hedged by surrounding mountain peaks. The tendency of men is to oppose, even to fight the things they do not understand, to become tribal-minded where the vision or the knowledge is limited. When, but not until, Texans in some way are brought to know Texas, are they likely to be found standing and working together for a greater Texas. It is this educational work among our own people that Governor Moody commended to the press as the most essential step in the development of the State that it needs to take.

Taxing Growing Timber

Very few Texans have made a study of reforestation or know anything much about it, though most of us think that unless something is done to replace the vast amounts of timber that are being destroyed constantly, the country will soon be without lumber. Those who live away from the great timber sections of the State give little thought to the value of the timber industry; those who live in the timber sections wonder how long the trees will provide the needed lumber.

The Texas Forestry Association is organized and working to conserve and rehabilitate our forest lands, but find it difficult to interest Texans as a whole in its efforts. But we need to study the timber problem seriously. Leonard Tillotson, chairman of the Legislative committee of the association, is a man of strictest integrity and unselfish in his love for the welfare of the State. He thinks that to promote reforestation, lands upon which there is growing young timber should be taxed on a basis of the value of the land itself, and that the timber should not be taxed until it is cut for marketing. Taxation measures of that kind have been adopted in other States with the result that land owners have been encouraged to plant parts of their lands to young trees and to await their growth.

Virgin Forests Gone

Mr. Tillotson presents some interesting figures showing that deforestation has been more marked than most Texans have thought. He says that of the 14,000,000 acres of original virgin pine forests in Texas only about 1,200,000 acres remain uncut. "Of the pine timber acreage cut over, approximately 2,000,000 acres have a fair stand of second growth trees and 1,500,000 acres have a poor stand of young growth, while of the remaining acreage that has been deforested some has been placed in cultivation and the remainder is usually regarded as practically idle land." He says that they

Women of Old Egypt Had Many Privileges

When the Rosetta stone was found in 1799 and historians were enabled to give the world a picture of ancient Egyptian life many were astounded at the station held by women in the time of Rameses II. The Egyptian daughter of that time inherited from her parents an equal share with her brothers; as a wife she was the real and very active mistress of the house. In fact, many records indicate that the husband was little more than her guest, a writer in the Kansas City Times comments. She went and came as she liked, talked with whom she pleased without anyone daring to question her actions went among men with an uncovered face and adorned her face and form with all the liberty displayed by her kind today.

Her gown was a smart short frock cut decollete, her lips were tinted and her cheeks were powdered, her eyes were coquettishly emphasized and to her hair dresser she went once every ten or twelve days. If she was the wife in a family in average circumstances she rose at daybreak, prepared breakfast, sent the men off to the workshop or their business, sent those children more than eight years old to school and the younger ones to drive the geese or cattle to pasture and then occupied herself with household duties for the rest of the day. The women of the higher social scale seem to have done little except lavish time and attention on their persons that they might appear to advantage in their strolls and visits abroad.

are unable under present taxation conditions to bear the expense of renewing forestation and to wait the required 20 to 40 years for any returns, the present policy of state, county and local districts being to levy taxes against both the land and the growing young timber.

Constitutional Amendment Needed

The Forestry Association is urging a constitutional amendment to make possible the enactment of laws to encourage private land owners to grow timber, but so far there has not been a realization of the great and constant loss of wealth from deforestation of a kind to secure the submission of such an amendment to a vote of the people. Texans need to make a close study of our timber as a resource of the state that needs safeguarding.

North Texas Trucking

Most Texans seldom think of the Red River section of North Texas as given over to truck growing for the markets. However, interest is turning to diversification from cotton and corn growing. The Avery community near Clarksville has recently shipped five cars of radishes, spinach and turnip greens and now cars are being loaded with turnips for the northern markets. Later, tomatoes and potatoes will be shipped out by carloads. The summer truck crops give promise of the best returns. Gradually other North Texas communities will follow the example of the Avery community as they see that profits are to be made by growing and co-operatively marketing vegetables and small fruits.

Butter and Eggs Marketing

A report from Lockhart says that, because of the co-operative plan of marketing butter and eggs there, eggs are selling for ten cents a dozen more than they usually bring at this season and butter is selling for 25c a pound more than in previous seasons. Yet, some people hesitate to co-operate in marketing their products. Where there is efficient and honest management in co-operative marketing movements, prices are invariably better and losses are fewer.

Tuesday Bridge Club

Mrs. Ben Atkinson was a clever hostess to members of the Tuesday Bridge Club this week. Spring roses made gay and inviting the setting for the four tables arranged for bridge. Tallies were dainty little ladies in gay frocks that served as place cards for each guest. Score pads in beautiful designs held table markers and fancy pencils decorated in bridge symbols completed the table accessories.

After many spirited games the hostess assisted by her daughter, Miss Florence served a salad course with iced tea. Guests complimented were Misses Gladys Gray, Mary Alice Porter, Blanche Wiley and Velda Walker, Mesdames J. C. Martin, R. P. Jeter, Lola Hearrell and Chas. Nabours.

Missionary Society

The women of the Methodist church did not meet Monday as that was fifth Monday. Since re-organization in the missionary work several weeks ago the ladies will meet in circles 3 Mondays of each month and meet only one Monday at the church. Mission study will be conducted in circles instead of under the leadership of Mrs. W. O. Triggs. The chairman of the mission study from the circles met with Mrs. Triggs Monday and she planned this work for them. Those attending this meeting were Mesdames W. P. McCall, H. N. Tate, John Joynes, W. R. Hoover and Miss Mollie Moore.

Business Women

The Business and Professional Women's Club will hold their regular monthly meeting at the Country Club Tuesday evening April 8th at 7:30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

A Word From Mr. Edison

I WELL REMEMBER the afternoon of September 4, 1882 which marked the opening of the Pearl Street electric generating station, the first station in the world for the production and distribution of electric power.

The reporter from the EVENING SUN who came to interview me at the station was an alert and agreeable young man, with an average degree of skepticism. It was obvious that the little station with its "thirty balloon-shaped globes, ranged at intervals on either side of the room" and glowing "with incandescent horseshoes," seemed hardly more than an amusing toy to him. He could not conceive that it meant the end of the candle and oil lamp, the end of the horse and carriage, the end of one epoch in civilized life and the beginning of another.

Some of us saw farther than he did, but even our imaginations fell short of visualizing all the changes that began that night. Many minds, working together, produce progress that outruns the imagination of even the most courageous.

That was forty-five years ago.

I was a young man then. I am an old man now. I have lived to see the street car, the elevator, the electrified railroad, the automobile, the phonograph, the motion picture, the radio, the airplane, and the beginnings of television. It seems today to many, as it seemed to most men and women in 1882, no great forward steps remain to be taken which are comparable to those that have been taken.

It may be that the next forty years will not produce inventions of such revolutionary character. Progress has been so rapid that we may require a breathing spell in which to consolidate our gains and develop present inventions to their full capacity. But of one thing I am more positive than I was even forty years ago—the electrical development of America has only well begun.

So long as there remains a single task being done by men and women which electricity could do as well, so long will that development be incomplete. What this development will mean in comfort, in leisure, and in opportunity for the larger life of the spirit we have only begun to realize. Great days are ahead of this nation and the world. And electricity will have a great part to play, granted only that it can be unfettered, with full opportunity for the largest possible individual initiative and energy.

I look back with happiness to that eventful afternoon forty-five years ago. What will be happening in electricity forty-five years from this evening? I wish I might be here to see.

Odd Styles Feature Weddings in Africa

Boma, Belgian Congo.—Natives of the remote Kasai region of Africa have taken a liking to the fashions of civilization.

"The first converted native couple I married," said Father Achille de Munster, a missionary in the district for the last 20 years, "were nothing but a loin cloth. But you should see them now. Recently I married 15 couples. They all sported white suits and the brides wore shoes and hats and their black faces were literally powdered white."

"Some had on one white shoe and one black. They seemed to think that was the height of chic."

One bridegroom, Father Munster said, fainted from the heat and his costume was two pairs of trousers, two shirts, two vests, two coats and a tight collar.

Kiss in the Dark Gets Freedom for Prisoner

Paris.—A kiss in the dark got a Frenchman out of prison the other day.

The prisoner, Fritz Gabriel, had been behind the bars for two years and had several more to serve. His wife came to see him. At the time taking in the dark corridor Gabriel and his wife embraced with especial warmth, the kissing kiss being so intimate in length that the guards noticed it and were moved. Gabriel had a slip of paper in his cheek. It passed his wife's lips during the embrace. On the paper was written:

"Tomorrow, during the recreation hour, I will jump over the wall. I have a vehicle waiting for me on the other side of the moat."

Mrs. Gabriel had the vehicle. Her husband got away and hasn't been heard of since.

Birthday Party

On Thursday afternoon from four to six o'clock Little Jack Slaughter, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Slaughter celebrated his fourth birthday with a pretty party inviting a number of young friends about thirty of whom responded.

Each little guest brought a neatly wrapped present for the little honoree and later in the afternoon each one was permitted to see all the gifts which proved to be one of the most enjoyable parts of the afternoon.

Out of doors games were enjoyed directed by Mrs. Joe Marek, Mrs. J. Bowman, Mrs. Hartsfield and Miss Geraldine, a daughter of the home.

The beautiful birthday cake was placed on a table on the lawn. It was snowy white and embossed in pink rosebuds and topped with four pink candles that burned until good wishes had been extended by all the little tots. Ice cream sandwiches were served with the cake. Candy and lolly pops and balloons were given as favors.

Doctor Dresses Own Injuries, Saves Baby

New York.—Diphtheria of the larynx threatened to choke the life out of Jane, the baby daughter of Policeman Hugo G. Geissele, Maplewood, N. J.

An immediate operation, known as "intubation," was all that could save her; Dr. D. J. Poia, ten miles away, started to Jane's bedside in an ambulance, with Miss Marion Kaitzel, a nurse, and Gustave Schmidt, driver. Another vehicle cut across Schmidt's course. The ambulance swerved and crashed into a steel trolley pole, a complete wreck. Its occupants were severely cut and battered.

The young physician, nevertheless, applied emergency dressing to his companions' injuries and his own, then commandeered an automobile, which rushed him and the nurse to the Geissele home. He and Doctor Demarest successfully operated on the baby.

INVENTS DEVICE TO LAND PLANES ON SKYSCRAPERS

Greater Safety in Flying Is Expected as Result of Jenkins' Invention.

Washington.—A propeller-reversing device which, it is announced, will permit an airplane to be brought to a stop within twice its own length after it touches the ground, has been evolved by C. Francis Jenkins of Washington.

Announcing his new invention, for which a patent has been issued, Mr. Jenkins said that it would now be possible to establish air fields directly in cities and on the roofs of large buildings and eliminate the "slow and costly hauling of mail, express, and passengers from suburban fields to their real destination."

"The reversing lever is so geared," he explained, "that it cannot be moved while the plane is in the air, thereby eliminating the danger that the pilot might accidentally pull the lever. When the airplane strikes the ground, a spring automatically releases the safety guard on the reversing control and the aviator is free to bring his plane to rest on ground, deck, or sea, almost as instantaneously as a bird ceases flight."

Other benefits of the new device were outlined thus:

"The general use of airplanes for suburb to city passenger service is brought nearer."

"It is now possible to bring a seaplane to rest in the lee of a battleship, saving both plane and pilot under storm conditions."

"Planes can approach landing fields at a greater rate of speed than before has been possible."

"Tragedies like the wrecking of the giant Sikorsky plane, which failed to rise in its attempted flight to Paris, will be safeguarded against. With the new device, the aviator, when he realizes that his take-off is a failure, can stop the plane."

Path of Disaster Left by Runaway Glacier

Bellingham, Wash.—A grinding iceberg, 300 feet wide and 2,000 feet long, ended a seven-mile trip in which it destroyed everything in its path, when it was broken up in the Nooksack river, 35 miles from here.

The great mass of ice was broken from Denning glacier on Mount Baker a few days ago.

Trees, railroads and bridges were either swept aside or ground to bits. The ground over which the glacier passed is bare of even remnants of anything which stood there before, according to A. S. Athern, state forest ranger.

The beds of Glacier creek and the middle fork of Nooksack river were torn wide for a depth of more than 30 feet and a width of 100 feet.

Damage to tracks and bridges of the Tacoma and St. Paul Logging company was estimated at $50,000.

Pieces of the great iceberg as large as houses still were melting along the pathway where they were broken off.

Mt. Rainier's Snow Cups Give Tourists Fright

Longmire, Wash.—Snow cups are one of the phenomena of Mount Rainier's white slopes and often tourists find in them a temporary prison. Instead of reducing a snow surface evenly the summer sun sometimes melts it in patterned cups closely set like squares of a gigantic checker board.

Walking along the edge of these snow cups visitors to the mountain resort are thrilled and frightened by stumbling, then falling deep into an ice-lined cell, only heads and shoulders visible. By considerable kicking and wading it is not difficult to escape. Pink snow here is caused by microscopic plant growth in thick patches under the surface of old snow. The plant often covers acres, giving the surface a pink glow.

Many other plant and vegetable life thrive in the old snow, but having no color tourists rarely observe them.
